Boulder Pride celebrates same sex friendship and love at the fabulous Red Party

(Boulder, CO—January 28, 2008) –Boulder Pride is hosting its sixth annual community wide dance and fundraising event recently renamed, “The Red Party.” The Eros themed Red Party invites members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer (LGBTQ) and straight allied community to come together to celebrate love, commitment, relationships and friendships.

This dynamic event will feature a fabulous silent auction, live disco band, gourmet food and drink, and a VIP love lounge. “The Red Party” is open to the public and proceeds will help Boulder Pride realize its mission, which is to achieve equality, respect, and well-being for all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) people in Boulder County

“This celebratory and LGBTQ affirming event is a fantastic way to cherish our relationships and dance the night away at the same time,” states Boulder Pride Interim Executive Director Kirsten Spielmann.” Spielmann adds, “everyone, gay or straight, is welcome at this dance and we can celebrate our love and friendship together.”

Renowned Denver based party band, Disco Mountain, will heat up the dance floor with their beloved red hot disco classics. When event revelers take a break from dancing, they will have the chance to sip on red cocktails, nosh on decadent desserts, flirt with cupids, relax in the Eros lounge, get professional photos taken, and bid for fabulous items at the silent auction.

The Red Party will be held on Saturday, February 2, 2008, from 8pm to midnight, at the beautiful Rembrandt Yard Event Center located at 1301 Spruce Street. All GLBTQ and GLBTQ allied persons 18 and over are welcome to attend. General Admission Tickets $25.00 per person, VIP Tickets $50.00 per person, Student Tickets $20.00 per person.
